by deleting the first sentence of the amendatory language of Section 50-6-135(a) in Section 1 of the introduced bill, and by substituting instead following new language:

An employer may file an application with the department of labor and workforce development to be excepted from the provisions of this act in respect to certain employees who are not receiving any form of either state or federal compensation.

and further amend by adding the following language at the end of the amendatory language of Section 50-6-135(a) in Section 1 of the introduced bill:

The application shall include a written statement relieving the employer of all liabilities associated with the provisions of this chapter and granting permission to the employer not to issue any workers' compensation benefits in response to a claim filed by an employer seeking a waiver under this section, or to pay health care or other benefits in the event a workers' compensation claim is filed by the employer seeking a waiver under this section.

and further amend by adding the following language as a new, appropriately designated subsection at the end of the amendatory language of Section 50-6-135 in Section 1 of the introduced bill:

(f) An employer who files an application with the department to be excepted from the provisions of this act in respect to certain employees shall have the salary of the employees who relinquish liability against the employer under this chapter, as evidenced by the form, excluded from the total salaries submitted to the employer's workers' compensation insurance company.
